

Program: Adult Education and Christian Formation

Sponsors:

Mary Jane Miller (millericons@gmail.com) and Peter D'Angio (peterdangio@gmail.com)

Overview: To encourage and support members of Saint Paul's or the surrounding Christian community of San Miguel Allende to organize and implement ongoing religious/spiritual and community-based programs. Previous presentations examples include: Father Frank's series on the Psalms and Andrea Spessard and Chris Durboraw's series on planning for the end of life.

Roles and responsibilities: Fr Peter will be in charge of vetting and scheduling presenters or speakers over the coming year. Together Mary Jane and Peter will evaluate proposals against the suggested criteria (see criteria below). The presenter(or speaker) will be responsible for getting the appropriate promotional materials and text to church administrator stpaulmanagementsma@gmail.com. They also will have to speak with Pep the Sexton about the set up and audio visual needs for providing logistical support.

Preferred day and time: Tuesday 10:00-11:30 a.m. (September to April)

Location: Saint Paul's Parish Hall

Criteria for consideration:

1. Religious/Spiritual programming (preference given to Judeo-Christian topics, but not limited to these).
2. Community programming that supports the well being of the members of Saint Paul's and/or the larger San Miguel community.

NOTE: Each presenter must provide and distribute their own descriptions, articles, text, and/or posters and give them to Claudia Rangel in the parish office to post where appropriate..

Cost: The assumption is the programming will be free or supported by voluntary contributions. If there is a suggested entrance fee or ticket sales, it must be approved in advance.

Suggested Proposals include:

The Bible and Sexuality (Cynthia Yoder)

Red Cross Emergency Response (Sara Tylosky)

Language and Culture at Saint Paul's (Father Miguel)

Pope Leo's 2026 Encyclical On Humanity and Artificial Intelligence (Peter D'Angio)
